

LSU COLLEGE OF MUSIC
& DRAMATIC ARTS

SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Undergraduate Student Handbook

2006-2007

Preface

Welcome to the School of Music at Louisiana State University. Congratulations on the decision to pursue your undergraduate education here in the College of Music and Dramatic Arts. I believe you will find the program of study to be excellent, exciting, and challenging. Your undergraduate years offer you new experiences and exciting prospects in intellectual, musical, and social pursuits. Take advantage of this opportunity to avail yourself of all of the resources here at LSU and in the Baton Rouge community.

In this handbook you will find policies, guidelines, deadlines, and helpful hints to assist you in the completion of your undergraduate music degree. Additional important information, including a degree audit regarding your specific curriculum, is available from PAWS at www.lsu.edu. Curriculum guides for the various baccalaureate degree programs in the School of Music are included in this handbook.

The faculty and administration are here to guide you through this process; however, you are responsible, with our assistance, for the completion of your degree. Becoming thoroughly familiar with this handbook, curriculum guides, and the LSU General Catalog will help in the initial stages of your degree work. If you have any questions, please see Carol Larsen.

We, the faculty and administration, are here to serve you, the students. Success in your education and career endeavors is very important to us. You, too, have some responsibility. Read this handbook and the LSU catalog. Attend classes regularly and keep up with assignments. PRACTICE!!! Seek help if you need it, in classes or personally. The faculty and administration are available for you, and the Student Health Center and Office of Student Services offer a variety of services.

Feel free to contact me if you need any assistance.

Dr. Sara Lynn Baird
Associate Dean for Academic Affairs

Curriculum in Music Therapy coordinated with Loyola University in New Orleans
Not offered as a degree at LSU

Please see the LSU Catalog and the curriculum guides in this handbook for specific course requirements for each degree.

Student Responsibility: Each student is responsible for completing all requirements established for his or her degree by the University, college, and department. You must learn about these requirements; a student's advisor or counselor may not assume that responsibility. Any substitution, waiver, or exemption from any established departmental or college requirement or academic standard may be accomplished only with the approval of the student's academic dean. Exceptions to University requirements, including the General Education requirements, will be authorized only with the approval of the student's dean and the Office of Academic Affairs.

Academic Requirements for Obtaining a Degree:

- maintain a grade point average of 2.00 (A=4) on all work taken, except for those courses in which grades of "P," "W," or "I" are recorded. You must have a cumulative GPA of 2.0 on all college work taken at this and any other university in order to graduate. In addition, all music majors must achieve a grade of "C" or higher in all music and music education classes. Music Education majors must receive a "C" or higher in all required PSYC and MUED courses and ENGL composition and achieve an LSU overall 2.5 gpa as stated in the catalog.
- fulfill a minimum residence requirement of two semesters (or four summer terms), earn at least 25% of the total number of hours required for the degree at this University, and meet the residence requirements of their college as stipulated in each college's and school's section of the catalog.
- complete all degree requirements as stated in the catalog

Admission

Students wishing to enroll as music majors in the School of Music must be admitted to the University by the Office of Admissions. The University application must be completed and submitted to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions, 110 Thomas Boyd Hall, along with application fee payment. Deadline for submission of the application is April 15 for the next fall semester and December 1 for the next spring semester. International students must apply by October 1 for spring semester admission. Late applications incur a late fee. A School of Music Application should be submitted online to the School of Music. Applicants must submit high school transcripts and Standardized Test scores (SAT or ACT). An official transcript is defined as a transcript sent from one institution to another, without being handled by the student. International students must submit a TOEFL score of at least 550 or 213 on the computer-based TOEFL.

Audition

Before a student can be admitted as a music major, she/he must audition for the appropriate applied music faculty. Taped auditions are acceptable in some areas, although an in-person audition is preferred. Audition requirements vary between areas; it is best to contact the applied professor for specific requirements. See Contact Information, p. 11 in this handbook for the faculty member to contact for your applied area or instrument.

Transfer Students

All transfer students must audition in their applied area, and be accepted by the faculty in their area as a music major. Advanced placement in an applied area will be determined once the student has arrived and performed in person. A taped audition is not acceptable for placement purposes. Transfer applicants also must submit an official transcript of all their college course work and a scholarship release form from their previous university or college. Also, all transfer students must take music theory and music history diagnostic exams at the beginning of their first semester at LSU. The faculty will recommend placement at the appropriate level. This placement, as well as the frequency of certain course offerings, will determine the number of semesters left until graduation.

Registration

Spring Invitational/Pre-enrollment Counseling/Freshman and Transfer Student Orientation - New Freshmen students attending any of these sessions are able to take advanced placement tests and register for the fall semester.

In subsequent semesters, the registration procedure is a computer-access system. Although students create and submit their own schedule requests on-line, consultation with an academic advisor is required when choosing courses each semester. Detailed instructions for completing this part of registration are given in the Schedule of Classes, available online. While entering students may schedule courses during Walk-Through Registration without penalty, stiff late-penalties apply to continuing students who do not meet the pre-registration and fee payment deadlines. Read the schedule of classes information carefully, and observe all deadlines. Penalties for missing deadlines for registration and fee payment are high, and will not be waived without viable cause.

ABS (Advance Billing System)

LSU has implemented a system designed to enable the majority of students to conduct University financial business via PAWS. As an LSU student, you will automatically have an account in this system. Class schedules resulting from advance registration will be included on your PAWS account. Fee bills are not mailed. They must be accessed via PAWS. You must pay your fees on or prior to the due date listed on your fee bill. You must complete registration through your PAWS account, even if the amount due is zero. If your payment is not received by the due date, your classes will be purged from the system. Purged courses will be re-added for College of Music and Dramatic Arts students only once per semester. If you pay fees after the due date, you will be assessed a $75 late registration service charge. Complete information on the ABS system is available from the Office of the University Registrar. Make sure that your mailing address and phone number are kept current on the LSU system. Use your PAWS account to update this information.

Late Registration - Drop/Add Policies - University policies concerning Drop/Add may be found in the LSU General Catalog. Students are able to drop courses by using PAWS through the final date to drop each semester. The Drop/Add forms are only necessary for retroactive procedures. Retroactive procedures will be considered only in exceptional instances.

Retroactive adds - It is your responsibility to make sure you are registered for the classes you wish to take. Courses are not normally added to a student's schedule after the 6th day of classes. If a course must be added, and circumstances are beyond the student's control, the retroactive add will be considered. All requests for retroactive adds must be made to Carol Larsen, with an explanation as to why the course must be added.

Degree audits - A degree audit is a computer-generated form indicating which classes have been taken and what is yet required to complete your degree so that you can plan effectively which courses to take. Additional degree audits are helpful if you wish to consider another major. The degree audit changes each semester as you complete courses. Learn to read the degree audit so that you can plan your University career properly. Degree audits may be accessed using PAWS.

Recital Hour - Required of all undergraduate music majors. This course meets every Thursday afternoon from 1:40-2:30 p.m. in the School of Music Recital Hall. Consult the course syllabus for more details. Recital Hour grades are based on attendance. You are responsible for attending the appropriate number of classes. Reconsideration of a failing grade will be rare. If you are missing Recital Hour credits, see Carol Larsen for permission to substitute a course for Recital Hour. Music 1010 MAY be substituted if your grade in that course is A and if your reason for missing Recital Hour credits is valid. Failure of Recital Hour is not a valid reason.

Excused Absences from Classes and Rehearsals - Excused absences may be granted for certain off-campus performances or obligations that are directly related to the LSU experience. The Dean of the School of Music must approve all such requests from ensemble directors prior to the beginning of the semester. Students will be made aware of these absences at the beginning of the semester. It is the student's responsibility to keep up with assignments and make up work assigned and/or covered in their absences. All such conflicts should be dealt with well in advance of the trip. Please refer to the LSU General Catalog.

Ensemble Auditions

- Auditions for ensembles are handled by individual directors. See Contact Information, p. 11 in this handbook. Procedures vary; check with each director for details. Most ensemble auditions are held in the week before classes begin for the academic year in August.

Accompanying Services

Accompanists will be provided free of charge for the following:

1. Students giving degree recitals.
2. Applied studio lessons for preparation of degree recitals (limited number of lessons).

If you are not preparing a degree recital in a given semester, be prepared to provide (and pay) your own studio accompanist as requested by your applied teacher. A list of free-lance accompanists may be obtained from the Staff Accompanist. See Contact Information, p. 11 in this handbook.

GPA calculations - It is vital that you be aware of your current standing in the University so that you may make reasonable decisions concerning registration, outside activities, future plans, etc. Information concerning GPA calculation is available in LSU's General Catalog. A GPA calculator is also available at www.lsu.edu/cas.

If you have questions about your GPA, see Carol Larsen. For GPA problems that threaten eligibility of your scholarship, see the Associate Dean.

Piano Proficiency requirements include the following:

	BM Composition BA Music	BM Brass/WW/Perc Strings/Harp Voice	BM Piano Perf. Piano Pedagogy Organ	BME
Piano Requirement	Piano proficiency at the level of completion of 1133 <hr/> Pass 1130, 1131 with C or better.	Pass 1130, 1131 1132, 1133 with a grade of C or better.	None	1130, 1131 1132, 1133 with a grade of C or better. In addition, the Piano Proficiency Exam must be passed with a grade of C or better before taking MUED 3170. Vocal music education students are required to take 3334 and 3335 and earn at least a grade of C.

Placement exams are given at Spring Invitational and Orientation. Incoming freshmen and transfer students should take a placement exam no later than the beginning of their first semester at LSU. Please contact Dr. Victoria Johnson (578-3270) for additional questions. The placement test may be taken ONLY ONCE.

The Proficiency Exam is given only at the end of the fall and spring semesters during finals week. Students must be enrolled in MUS 1133 or obtain permission from the coordinator of Group Piano to take the Piano Proficiency Exam. The four semesters of group piano are designed to be taken during the freshman and sophomore years, concurrently with the first four semesters of music theory (MUS 1731, 1732, 2731, and 2732). Please be aware MUS 1130, MUS 1132 and MUS 3334 are offered only in the fall semesters and MUS 1131, MUS 1133 and MUS 3335 are offered only in the spring semesters. Failure to stay on schedule may delay your course of study.

Important Dates Fall Semester 2006 (1s/2007):

Make sure you check the Academic Calendar at www.lsu.edu each semester for accurate dates. Sometimes the dates are changed. The Schedule of Classes for each semester is definitive.

Scholarship policies

- 1) Music school scholarships (tuition waivers) are available only for music majors. If you change your major, your scholarship will not be renewed.
- 2) Music scholarships are normally renewable for four years. Honors scholarships are available for a maximum of four years, with no extensions. TOPS Scholarships are usually granted for 8 semesters. You may be required to reapply each year for TOPS scholarships. (See #5)
- 3) For School of Music scholarships, a minimum 2.75 cumulative GPA must be achieved and maintained. If a student fails to meet the 2.75 minimum, and/or fails to make satisfactory progress in the degree program, the student will enter a probationary period of one semester. If at the end of the probationary semester, the student has not achieved a 2.75 cumulative GPA, and/or is not making satisfactory academic or musical progress, the scholarship will not be renewed. For TOPS and Honors scholarships, the GPA requirement is different. Check your original scholarship agreement.
- 4) Students must maintain full-time status (12 hours) to remain eligible for a scholarship. They will be allowed to drop below 12 hours once without penalty during their LSU academic career. If the student drops below 12 hours a second time, the scholarship will not be renewed.
- 5) Extensions - Students are permitted to apply for an extension past the normal four years of assistance. The application will be reviewed by the scholarship committee, taking into consideration such factors as academic standing, expected graduation date, musical achievements, and departmental budgets. You must apply early in the semester in which your scholarship expires in order to be considered for an extension. (Deadline: November 1 in the fall and March 1 in the spring). If extensions are granted, the amount of the extension is likely to be a partial amount of the original scholarship. All music students on any scholarship are eligible to apply for an extension from the School of Music.

To apply for a scholarship extension, submit the following to Dr. Sara Lynn Baird, Associate Dean:

1. Letter of request for extension, with justification for the request
2. Letters of recommendation from your applied teacher and ensemble director. For music education majors, a letter from your music education advisor may substitute for the applied teacher recommendation.

Due to budgetary restrictions, extensions are less, rather than more, likely to be granted. Your academic record and contribution to the School of Music will be determining factors. Extensions granted will require ensemble participation.

- 1) School of Music scholarships (tuition waivers) and TOPS scholarships are not available for summer study. Students on an academic honors scholarship may be eligible for assistance. Check with the Office of Student Aid and Scholarships for details.
- 2) Students receiving a TOPS Scholarship or an Honors Scholarship from the Office of Student Aid and Scholarships should consult that office for specific details concerning continued eligibility.

Louisiana Music Award

The Louisiana Music Award (LMA) is an award worth $640 per semester and is paid in a lump sum check by the end of the 3rd week of classes. The LMA will not appear on your fee bill prior to the beginning of the semester. It will be credited to your account after the semester begins. The majority of these awards are made as part of the recruitment/scholarship process and are automatically renewable. Students not awarded an LMA as part of the recruitment process may apply at any time, and if possible, such awards will be made to those students. However, these awards are for one semester only, and students must re-apply each semester.

Upper Divisional Examinations - At the end of the sophomore year (4th semester), music majors (Performance, Piano Pedagogy, and Music Education) are expected to demonstrate proficiency as a performer. This upper divisional examination is given at the time of the jury examination and may have additional requirements. Students failing this examination may be advised and counseled into another major. In addition to performing proficiency, music education majors are required to pass the Reading, Writing, and Math portions of the Pre-Professional Skills Test of the PRAXIS series and to achieve a GPA of 2.5. Music Education students must also pass the piano proficiency exam at the end of the sophomore year or before. Vocal Music Education students whose instrument is piano must satisfy vocal proficiency requirements. Music Education students who do not meet these requirements will not be allowed to take their junior level MUED classes.

Satisfactory Progress - Students falling more than one year behind in the completion of the expected sequence of courses will be considered as not making satisfactory progress. Students failing to pass the upper divisional examination after two attempts will be considered as not making satisfactory progress. Such a determination from either cause will result in the non-renewal of the scholarship. Exceptions must be approved by the Dean of the School of Music. Some applied areas require a minimum grade point average in the applied area before the upper division examination may be attempted. A maximum of six semesters may be used to achieve the appropriate GPA.

Jury Examinations - Jury examinations are designed as a final examination in your applied instrument area. Different areas within the School of Music administer these examinations in a variety of ways. Check with your private teacher for more information.

RECITAL HALL SCHEDULING

- The School of Music Recital Hall is used for a wide variety of events. Following the guidelines for scheduling rehearsals and recitals will avoid last-minute crises. Guidelines and forms may be obtained in the Music Office. All degree recitals must be tape-recorded. A non-refundable fee of $75.00 is charged to the student for all degree and non-degree recitals.

- Register for the appropriate course number and the correct number of hours. Course numbers used for recitals are MUS 4797 Senior Recital (must be for 2 credit hours) or MUS 4798 Senior Composition Recital (1 credit hour required). For non-required recitals you may register for 1 hour credit. You may not reserve a recital date without proof of registration and fee payment. Submit a copy of your fee bill with your Reservation Form.

- Consult with your studio teacher, your accompanist and ALL personnel involved in the recital BEFORE reserving a hall date. Please use the computers in the School of Music computer lab, or any computer with internet access, to search for open dates in the Recital Hall. You can check the schedule of the Recital Hall at the LSU School of Music Web site, www.music.lsu.edu >> Check Recital Hall Availability

- Some restrictions apply to student recital dates, times and locations.
 1. Student recitals must occur in the School of Music Recital Hall unless approved by the Associate Dean.
 2. Student recitals may not be scheduled on Saturday or Sunday, during the Concentrated Study Period, during Final Exams, or on University holidays.
 3. Graduate student recitals are usually presented at 8:00 p.m. If no 8:00 p.m. time is available, graduate student recitals may be scheduled at 4:00 or 6:00 p.m. Undergraduate recitals may not be scheduled at 8:00 p.m. without approval from the Associate Dean. Only extremely extenuating circumstances will justify such approval.
 4. Dress rehearsals in the Recital Hall may be scheduled for 1 ½ hours during the following weekday time-periods: 10:00 a.m.-11:30 a.m., 11:30 am - 1:00 pm or 1:00 p.m.-2:30 p.m.

- Complete a Recital Hall Reservation Form. Forms are located in the FRONT OFFICE. Pick FOUR possible dates for your recital and prioritize them. Include the requested recital dates, stage / equipment needs and repertoire with accurate timings. After obtaining faculty and accompanist signatures, submit the completed form to Kelly Eaglin at the Front Desk in the School of Music Office. You will receive confirmation of your recital date via e-mail. You should also check the School of Music Web site to see if your recital has been scheduled. Dress rehearsals will be scheduled AFTER the performance date is set.

- Submit materials for your recital programs no later than THREE weeks before the event to Michael Bellinger's office, Room 111. This information should include YOUR NAME, date / time / place of your recital, your teacher's name, your degree program, program order (including INTERMISSION), titles of works, composers and their dates, all movements, all personnel (including your accompanist), all diacritical marks for other languages, and any other appropriate information. Student recitals must NOT exceed 60 minutes, including intermission. Creation and printing of program notes is the responsibility of the student.

- Students MUST use programs prepared by the School of Music. Programs are official University documents. In addition to serving as a program for the recital, these documents are stored in archives to provide permanent records of School of Music activities. It is important that they be uniform and professional in appearance.
- FAILURE TO PROVIDE ALL NECESSARY INFORMATION TO THE PUBLICITY OFFICE THREE WEEKS BEFORE YOUR RECITAL MAY RESULT IN YOUR PROGRAMS NOT BEING AVAILABLE FOR THE RECITAL.

RECEPTIONS

A reception after the recital may be held in the Faculty lounge. You must reserve the room at least two weeks before the event and check out a key on the last working day prior to the recital.

RESERVATIONS FOR OTHER ROOMS

With approval and signature of the applied teacher, other rooms may be reserved for rehearsals of chamber groups and small ensembles. A different form is required for reservation of rooms other than the Recital Hall. See Kelly Eaglin at the Front Desk for room reservations.

RECORDING SERVICES

Excellent recording services are available through the School of Music. Fees paid for degree recitals cover the cost of an initial recording. Additional services (cassette copying, editing, or recording sessions) are available for a reasonable fee. See the Recording Engineer, Bill Kelley, for more information (Room 304; Phone No. 225-578-2654).

Keys - Some students will need keys to access certain rooms. For each key issued, a $25 deposit will be required, which will be refunded upon return of the key. Please protect your University keys, and report any loss of a University key immediately, so that security concerns may be addressed.

Lockers - See Pat McGrew. Report any problems with your locker to a member of the Administrative Staff immediately.

Graduation Checkout - As you approach the middle of the junior year, you should plan an anticipated date of graduation. This date can be determined through the periodic advising with an academic counselor. At the beginning of the semester of the anticipated date of graduation, you must schedule an appointment with the academic counselor to complete a graduation checkout.

Graduation Exercises - Students are encouraged to attend the Graduation Exercises. Your presence there will serve as an important indication of the School of Music's success in undergraduate education. The ceremony itself also serves as a valuable opportunity for you to reflect on your accomplishment, and be duly congratulated by School of Music faculty and administrators. Academic regalia may be rented or purchased at the University Bookstore.

Personal Safety

Building hours are 6:30 am - 11:30 pm daily. Prudence is advised as it is in any populated area. Please avoid practicing late at night if the building seems deserted. Try to arrange your practice schedule during times when the building is more populated. Lock your practice room door when inside, and DO NOT OPEN IT TO STRANGERS. Note that the buildings may not be open on home football-game Saturdays, to prevent unauthorized use of the building facilities by visitors to the campus. Report the appearance of unauthorized persons in the building or aberrant behavior to the Music Office or Campus Police immediately. ENTRANCE INTO THE BUILDING OUTSIDE BUILDING HOURS is strictly prohibited. You may be charged with breaking and entering and reported to the Dean of Students if caught in the building after hours.

DO NOT LEAVE THE BUILDING ALONE AFTER DARK TO WALK BACK TO YOUR APARTMENT OR DORM.

TRANSPORTATION SERVICES ARE AVAILABLE AT CAMPUS TRANSIT - 225-578-5555.

CURRICULUM GUIDES (pp. 15-38)

The curriculum guide sheets are designed to give an overview of the degree program, and to present a plan that, if strictly followed, could lead to graduation in four years. These sheets will include a graphic image (a shaded area) that indicates the ideal semester during which you should complete a certain requirement. Students who do not take courses when recommended may find it impossible to complete their degree program in four years. Realize that this is only a model. Very few students will actually follow it with no deviation. Also realize that certain courses will only be offered in alternate years. Plan early and plan often to avoid situations that require you to take courses that are not offered.
